

Women in Logistics, Northern California/Women in Logistics Scholarship

Award for students (undergraduate/graduate, male/female) studying and eventually planning careers in logistics/supply chain management. Applicants must be enrolled in a degree program at an institution within the 9 counties comprising the San Francisco Bay Area and have at least one semester left, as this award goes directly to the institution towards tuition/fees. Deadlines typically fall on November 1st. While student need may be considered, awards are based primarily on merit, work experience and demonstrated interest in the field.
