

Law Offices of David A. Black/Scholarship for Disabled Veterans

The Law Offices of David A. Black has announced the establishment of a scholarship for disabled veterans. This is a scholarship that will assist in the payment of tuition to the educational institution chosen by the successful applicant. The scholarship is in the form of tuition assistance at a college or university, junior college, trade school or vocational school. Applicants need not be enrolled at an educational institution at the time they submit their application, but the scholarship must be utilized within one year from the date of the award. The scholarship funds will be paid directly to the school to defray a portion of the tuition cost. In order to be considered for the scholarship, you must be a veteran of the United States Armed Forces and have a 30% or higher disability rating. To apply for the disabled veteran scholarship, you must 1. complete and submit the online application; 2. upload a short statement (not more than 100 words) telling us your educational goals. (Optional) Upload an essay of not more than 800 words on the topic of how your military service has affected your life. The winner will be selected at the sole discretion of David A. Black, founder of the Law Offices of David A. Black.
