

EssayHub/Essay Writing Contest by EssayHub

Any individual choosing to participate in this contest must be undergoing high school or higher level education (university, college )Every submission must meet the minimum word count requirement of 500 words to 1000 words max. All work for this essay contest must be written in English. We understand that the world is multilingual and we would enjoy reading such interesting works in their original language, however it would make conducting such an event nearly impossible. Fill our application form located on this page to take part in the contest. Or send your works in Word or Doc type files as to allow easy access to them to the email address support@essayhub.com with subject line Essay Writing Contest. The email submission requirements need you to place your name in the work itself and in the text of the email letter itself. Example: Essay Writing Contest- Joseph Smith. Avoid continuously looking to debate whether you should be the winner or trying to convince the judges why you think you deserved to win. All judging is done anonymously and based solely on the quality of the essay writer's work. This allows for only the best essays to win. We do not accept the submission of any kind of scholarship essay. Plagiarism is a no go. All those found guilty will be disqualified without being notified. No excuses, no exceptions. There are many referencing guides available on our website for you to use in case you get stuck. In the case of a resubmission from a previous contest it will not be taken into account and regarded as plagiarism. All submissions must be given in by the 30th of April 2017 11:59 PST at the latest. Make sure to include your correct contact information so we may get a hold of you if you have won. The event begins on the 17th of February 2017 at 12:00 PST.
