

Elements Behavioral Health/Elements Behavioral Health College Tuition Scholarship

Write a 500-word essay responding to the following prompt: The new edition of the Associated Press's Stylebook states the word 'addict' should no longer be used as a noun. In short, a person should be identified separate from their disease. Essay Option: Explain why describing someone as addicted rather than an addict is important to society in combatting addiction. Design Option: If you prefer, feel free to interpret this topic via an infographic or illustration.
