

United Negro College Fund/Beverly J. Gilliam Scholarship for Foreign Study

The Beverly J. Gilliam Scholarship for Foreign Study offers financial assistance up to $6,500 to students who are accepted into recognized summer study abroad programs. The scholarship's goals are to help students obtain international experiences that will allow them to become better world citizens and successfully compete in the global job market. This program will allow UNCF students to experience diverse cultures and participate within challenging overseas' academic environments. The applicants must be enrolled at one of the UNCF's member institutions as a sophomore or junior and have a minimum 2.7 GPA.
