

RCI Foundation/Robert W. Lyons Scholarship

RCI-IIBEC Foundation has established a scholarship program to assist students currently enrolled in a architecture, engineering, construction or building sciences post secondary program. This program is administered by Scholarship America, the nation's largest designer and manager of scholarship, tuition assistance and other education support programs for corporations, foundations, associations, and individuals. Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, age, gender, disability, or national origin. Applicants to the RCI-IIBEC Foundation Scholarship Program must be a current undergraduate student who has completed a minimum of 24 credit hours and is planning to enroll full-time at an accredited college, university or vocational-technical school for the entire academic year in an accredited program of architecture, engineering, construction or building sciences leading to a career in the construction or building envelope industry. Must have a minimum grade point average of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale (or the equivalent) and be a citizen of the United States or Canada. Up to two (2) awards of $5,000 each will be granted to undergraduate students only. This award is not renewable; past recipients may not re-apply. Maximum lifetime award for any recipient is $12,500. Awards can be used for tuition, fees, books and supplies only. Awards may not be deferred.
